

Table of Contents

Examples: Political Cartoons	1
------------------------------------	---

Examples: Political Cartoons

On this page you will find examples for Political Cartoons. If you are dealing with a comic stripe, you can learn more on how to describe that kind of image at Comics and Graphic Novels.

Remember these are examples only. Always follow the general guidelines and the other documentation on the image wiki as needed. Context will always influence how you describe something.

If you have any questions, post your question on the Alt-Text Q&A

For political cartoons, be objective, stick to the facts, and remember details matter and there is a lot of visual language in these types of images.

[Alt-text] A political cartoon of Sir John underneath a large round weight. He holds it up with both of his hands with a deep frown. He has a light skin tone, a long hooked nose, and long black hair pulled back into a low short ponytail. He wears a dark coloured suit. The weight has words written on it that read: "Trench disapproval of Riel's execution". A single rope is tied around the center of the weight and hangs down the far side. A large hand with a suit sleeve reaches from behind the weight with a pair of scissors to cut it. Text along the sleeve reads: "French Vote".

Return to Medium Example page

Return to Examples main page

Return to Images main page

Last update:
2024/05/09 public:nnels:etext:images:alt_text_examples:political_cartoons https://wiki.libraries.coop/doku.php?id=public:nnels:etext:images:alt_text_examples:political_cartoons
05:04

From:
<https://wiki.libraries.coop/> - BC Libraries Coop wiki

Permanent link:
https://wiki.libraries.coop/doku.php?id=public:nnels:etext:images:alt_text_examples:political_cartoons

Last update: 2024/05/09 05:04

